Journal of Co-operative Studies

The Society publishes a journal three times a year. Each issue contains a lively and interesting range of articles analysing all sectors of the movement. It is essential reading for anyone interested on co-operatives at either an academic or practical level. It is posted free to all members.

Annual Conference

Each year in the autumn, the Society holds its annual conference on a theme of current importance to co-operative members.

Research Register

The Society maintains a register of research activity into issues of co-operative interest.

Conference

This year's conference is a chance to explore some of the complex issues surrounding the place of employees within co-operative enterprises of all kinds.

We are delighted to welcome members of Co-operatives UK's Worker Co-operative Council who will be holding their autumn meeting immediately before this event and international speakers from a conference at Aberdeen University earlier in the week.

UK Contributors include:

Prof. Richard Wilkinson (The Equality Trust)
Hugh Donnelly (Co-op Education Trust Scotland)
Prof. Mike Taylor (University of Birmingham)
Sion Whellons (Calverts North Star Press)
Robin Murray (The Young foundation)
Craig Lumsden (Co-operative Financial Services)
Nigel Mason (Employee Ownership Association)
Dr. Elizabeth McKnight (Aberdeen University)
Ian Manborde (Ruskin College)
Mary Rayner (Co-operatives UK)

Session Topics include:

- The Psychology of Co-operation
- The role of Workers in the Theory of the Firm
- Co-operation between Workers and Consumers
- Annual Research Roundtable
